

LE MOYNE

Greatness
meets
Goodness®

Think Forward >

A Le Moyne education provides students with the intellectual skills necessary to succeed in the world and, beyond that, the will to use their abilities to promote a more just society. In and out of the classroom, Le Moyne students embrace the real world in all its glory. Through study abroad opportunities, service learning projects and internships, you'll experience a variety of perspectives, cultures and careers. You'll test your skills and interests against the day-to-day reality of a job. And you'll maximize your potential to do the most good in this world.

New York City Council Member

EXPERT FACULTY ▶

Leading Globally

Immersion experiences bring students face to face with different cultures, companies, values and ideas, broadening their understanding of the rapidly shifting global business landscape. Marketing professor Dipankar Rai, Ph.D., works to expand these opportunities for students through the Hetterich Center for Global Engagement and Impact.

Working to Restore Memories

Fulbright Scholar and Associate Professor of Biological Sciences Lara DeRuisseau, Ph.D., possesses a keen understanding of how precious and irreplaceable our memories are and was inspired to put her own mind to work researching Alzheimer's disease.

◀ OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

A Musical Metamorphosis

Drive. Passion. Creativity – key ingredients to Kafka's Metamorphosis: The Musical!, which recently scored a deal with Grammy Award-winning record label Broadway Records.

Career Guru

Google's MaryAlice Feinstein '95 has a talent for finding talent. A professional development coach in the tech giant's Career Guru program, she also is a mentor to current Le Moyne students.

Vibrant Exchange

Fulbright scholar Greg Kelly '18 is building a vibrant, collaborative environment as a teaching assistant in Malaysia.

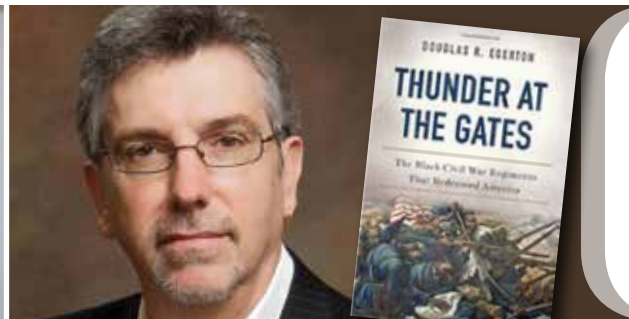

A Mission to Mentor

When Linsey (Williams) Donovan '09 established New Levels, a mentorship program for incoming college students, she drew inspiration from her teachers at Le Moyne.

A Voice to End Discrimination

Associate Professor of Religious Studies Darius Makuja, Ph.D., used his powerful voice to speak out against the scourge of racism before one of the world's most august bodies – the United Nations.

A Book Worthy of Thunderous Applause

Professor Douglas Egerton, Ph.D., an internationally renowned Civil War historian, was awarded the prestigious Gilder Lehrman Lincoln Prize for his book Thunder at the Gates: The Black Civil War Regiments that Redeemed America.
