LE MOYNE

Greatness meets Goodness®

2018
We are indeed blessed by a huge world and lots of people. Close your eyes for just a second and take a slow and deep breath and be grateful that you can breathe. Be grateful that you are filled with life. Open your eyes and silently say thanks for what you’ve been given. Slow down and be open to new things. Be open to all of the questions and uncertainties and challenges. Open your eyes to the world because God’s spirit is in this world. God is here. We come into the world with all our hopes and dreams, our limits, our frustrations, our questions and God says, ‘Welcome. I am with you.’ The best is yet to come. Life is good and life is full of possibility, so be ready for new adventures, new service, new learning. Be ready for life.

2017 Le Moyne College Commencement Benediction by John Bucki, S.J.

We dedicate this calendar to Father Bucki who, before passing in September 2017 after a courageous battle with lung cancer, most recently served Le Moyne students as the welcoming, cheerful and exuberant director of Campus Ministry and rector of our Jesuit community. We know that he is looking down on us from heaven, arms outstretched with a smile on his face.

Who is Your Le Moyne?

Geza C. Paikert, Ph.D.
Submitted by: Ellen (Collins) Butz '72

In 1968, he was my freshman history professor. He taught me that history is not just a list of boring facts, but a vibrant, relevant discipline. He inspired me to change my major to history. I'm grateful every time I listen to the news and have historical context for current events.
Who is Your Le Moyne?

Renée Downey Hart, Ph.D.
Submitted by: Brandon Johnson ’15

The professor who made a profound difference in my life on the Heights and now in my professional career is Professor Downey Hart. Each class I took with her gave me new insights, not only into how to run a business efficiently, but also how to treat your employees with proper respect. These are lessons that I’ve taken with me throughout each of my leadership positions, especially at Loretto, where I oversee over 1,500 individuals.
Who is Your Le Moyne?

Deborah Cromley, Ph.D.
Submitted by: Kaelin Foody '18

Energetic, insightful, and unwaveringly compassionate, Dr. Cromley embodies the joy of my Le Moyne experience. She went from being my Latin professor to my role model, whose heartfelt guidance I always seek. I'll forever cherish her impact on me and always admire her as a teacher, mentor, and friend.

Submitted by David M. Calkins '91

Although, I studied business/finance as a major, I minored in history. The history professors at Le Moyne in the late '80s and early '90s were second to none. They challenged your thinking and interpretations of historic events. Dr. Bill Telesca, Dr. John Langdon and Dr. Doug Egerton were fantastic professors and guides when it came to their discipline of history. I learned a lot about Medieval Europe, 20th century Germany and Jeffersonian America.

Kate Costello-Sullivan, Ph.D.
Submitted by Brooke Merrifield ’17

After taking several classes with her in my undergrad, Dr. Costello-Sullivan immediately became my role model. Her level of professionalism and genuine dedication to her craft are something everyone should strive to achieve. My life was considerably enhanced by having access to her as a mentor.

Ms. Goodisman was instrumental in developing my passion for French language. She encouraged me not to spend just a semester in France but an entire academic year. The experience changed my life and set the stage for the past 26 years of my career.

Who is Your Le Moyne?

Fran Adams
Submitted by: Stephen Patrician '03

Fran is my family's neighbor, and has been a friend and mentor to me. She introduced me to Le Moyne, and continued to be a friendly face during my time as a student. Fran has devoted her life to the well-being of all Le Moyne students. Fran IS Le Moyne. One could not exist without the other.
Who is Your Le Moyne?

David Casey, S.J.
Submitted by: Mary Anne Pratt ’67

Transferring to Le Moyne as a junior had its challenges. However, I felt welcomed by staff and students. I’m grateful to have maintained many friendships made at Le Moyne. The Jesuit education has continued to enrich my life. In particular, I felt supported by the Le Moyne community when Father Casey participated in my husband’s funeral.

Father Berrigan probably had more impact on the school, the nation – even the entire world – than any other individual ever associated with Le Moyne College. I can’t think of anyone else who even comes close.
